

2008 IIMC Conference

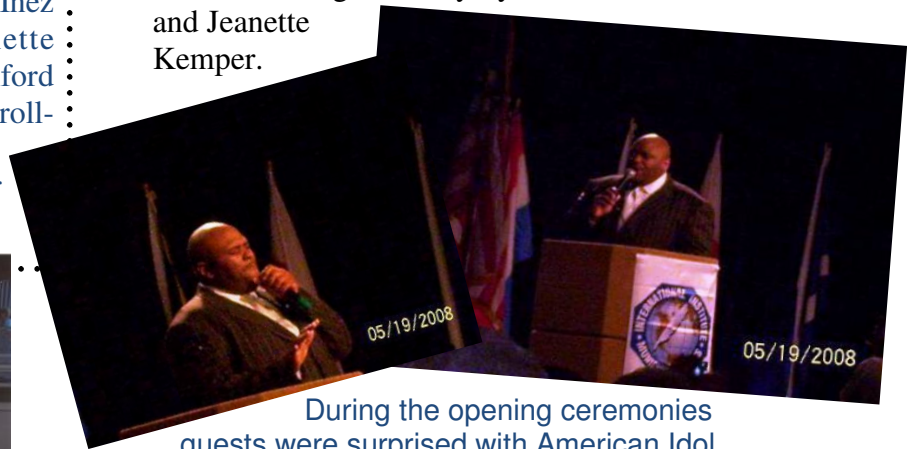

Atlanta, Georgia

The 2008 IIMC Conference was held May 18-22 in Atlanta, Georgia. Kentucky was well represented by the following clerks. KMCA President Debbie Batliner of Simpsonville, Inez Harris of Shelbyville, Jeanette Kemper of Edgewood, Mary Munford of Louisville, Becky Pyles of Carrollton, Denise Ridley of Dawson Springs, and Institute Director Barbara Combs.

Three Kentuckians in Atlanta discuss the next Conference to be held May 19—23, 2009 in Chicago, IL. From left to right, Becky Pyles, Honest Abe, and Jeanette Kemper.

During the opening ceremonies guests were surprised with American Idol winner Ruben Studdard as our entertainment.

Seen at left, after some great sessions, Harris, Kemper, Pyles and Batliner share a laugh on the train.

The All Conference Event was held at Stone Mountain, seen in these photos. The mountain is made of granite and at dark they have a wonderful laser light show. At that park they also have train rides, a sky lift, and shopping at their old time stores.

